Dear Mr. Sanborn,

I wish the Senate, & will surely fall ill & die, if he stays where he is, & I dont

Shiu ann

Stion to be an amateur Martyrtatist. Somebody ought to go on & lay words of Mouth find out without ascertain by observation that it making him sheets, -

Hospital

a sense of writing (the

Sumner in a suitable

Sumner would like it to think he & ask the cause of absence of Standing by, the Abolitionists

de Sade

on his parole. It is a long

Sumner

1860

Sentimen-

on this

Sumner

Ellen the

Sumner

Sumner

absolute

Thus

He had no choice but to leave Mr. Bell to Mourn

with

Mary

Mr. Bell

Mary

Mourn

Mary

Mary

Mary

as he deems, by petitioning, in an individual While intimating that we are on a Revolutionary Basis, if these things be not granted;
we [illegible] a thousand from all parts of the Country, entreat Sicken people, taking the opportunity to write respectful ful letters to the Senatorial committee, asking that they at least have the privilege that European powers similarly circumstanced accord to European subjects similarly circumstanced, of being transferred to a Mason